YOUTH PROGRAMMING

WINTER CLASSES

Youth will enjoy our small groups and a blend of education mixed with fun - during these winter classes at NICC.

Winter is for the Birds

Grades K - 5

Nov. 12, 2026
3:30–4:30 pm

Cost: $19

Give our local wildlife a helping hand this cold season! In this fun, hands-on workshop, young crafters in grades K-5 will build and decorate their very own simple bird feeder to take home. You and your child will learn simple assembly techniques, discover how local birds find food during the chilly months and create a custom feeding station to hang in your backyard. Help your local birds stay nourished all winter long.

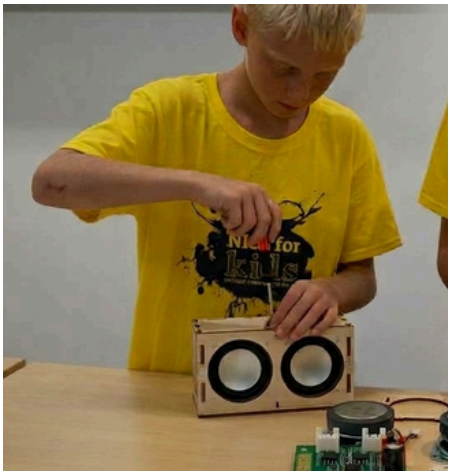

Unfold the Holidays

Grades 3+

Dec. 2, 2026
2–3 pm

Cost: $25

Wrap up your holiday season with creativity and fun! In this hands-on Christmas workshop designed for ages 10 and up, you will master the Japanese art of origami to fold, shape and create custom paper gift boxes. You will learn fundamental paper-folding techniques, build decorative boxes perfect for small holiday treasures and discover how to personalize your creations with festive flair. Craft unique handmade holiday boxes!

Wired for Sound

Grades 3+

Feb. 17, 2027
2–3:30 pm

Cost: $25

Are you ready to build a working Bluetooth speaker from scratch? Discover the world of hands-on electronics as you assemble a custom speaker kit to take home. You will learn how electronic components connect, explore fundamental circuit concepts and practice basic wiring techniques. Unlock your inner engineer and turn raw parts into a powerful sound system.
